

HCCL FAQ:

Do you have questions? Here's the answers so far.

Due to Gov. DeWine's extension of the Stay at Home order, the Huron County Community Library will be closed until at least May 4.

What has been canceled?

- All programming has been suspended or postponed until further notice. Programming has been moved to the virtual, digital world. Find new activities, crafts, reads, and more daily on our Facebook, webpage, and Youtube.
- Outreach deliveries have been suspended until further notice.

When are items due?

- All due dates have been extended to May 8.

What about the items I have at home?

- Please keep all library materials at home until we are reopen. Nothing will be due during this closure.

What about my holds?

- All holds that arrived before we closed will be held until May 15.
- Holds have been suspended.

What if I need a book or service?

- Digital resources are still available.
- Ebooks, audiobooks, and more are on Libby, Tumblebooks, and hoopla.
- A variety of sources for all ages Read with Staff through Facebook Live and online videos. Video programming and links for activities/crafts for all ages will be added daily.
- Wifi is on and available 24/7
- Ancestry Library Edition is available at home.
- Ohio Web Library - Links for research, crafts, fun activities for kids.

